

"Word of the Month"

Month	Word	Definition
September	Responsibility	Responsibility means that you can be trusted and depended on to do the things you need to do in the time period you have been given.
October	Trustworthiness	Trustworthiness means being honest, dependable and loyal, and doing what you say you will do.
November	Citizenship	Citizenship means helping in whatever ways possible to make your school, community and world a better place.
December	Caring & Compassion	Caring and compassion means being concerned for other people's feelings and showing support for them during both happy and sad times.
January	Tolerance	Tolerance means being willing to accept and respect people and their opinions, even when they are different from you or your beliefs.
February	Honesty	Honesty means always telling the truth so that people will know they can trust you.
March	Diligence	Diligence means setting goals, staying focused, always doing your very best, and refusing to give up on any of the goals you set for yourself.
April	Fairness	Fairness means sharing, taking turns, playing by the rules, and always treating others with kindness and honesty.
May	Respect	Respect means using your manners, thinking about other people's feelings, and treating everyone and everything in your world with the care they deserve.
June	Courage	Courage means being able to deal with your problems in a respectful and responsible way instead of avoiding them.